This Amendment No. 1 to Schedule 13D (this “Amendment”) is filed by and on behalf of the Reporting Person to amend the Schedule 13D related to common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Common Stock”) of AeroCentury Corp., a Delaware corporation (the “Issuer”) previously filed by the Reporting Person with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) on December 5, 2014 (as amended, the “Schedule 13D”). Each capitalized term used and not defined herein shall have the meaning assigned to such term in the Schedule 13D. Except as otherwise provided herein, each Item of the Schedule 13D remains unchanged.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 is hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

As previously disclosed, on December 5, 2014, the Reporting Person sent a letter (the “Initial Letter”) to the Board of Directors of the Issuer (the “Board”) outlining the proposed terms of a transaction between the Issuer and BeauTech Power Systems, LLC, a Texas limited liability company of which the Reporting Person owns 51% of the outstanding equity (“BeauTech”). Pursuant to the Initial Letter, BeauTech proposed to enter into a merger agreement with the Issuer to exchange all of the outstanding Common Stock of the Issuer for $12.50 per share in cash, which price represented a premium of approximately 50% to the closing price of the Issuer’s Common Stock on December 3, 2014 (the “Proposal”).

On December 17, 2014, the Reporting Person received a response letter (the “Board Letter”) from Mr. Neal Crispin, Chairman of the Board, declining on behalf of the Board to engage in discussions with the Reporting Person regarding the Proposal, stating that the Board “has determined that continuing to implement the [Issuer’s] long-term corporate strategy objectives and business plan is the best way to increase stockholder value going forward.” The foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Board Letter, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2 and incorporated by reference herein.

On January 9, 2015, the Reporting Person sent a response letter (the “Response Letter”) to the Independent Directors of the Issuer (the “Independent Directors”) expressing his disappointment in the Board’s response to the Initial Letter. The Reporting Person challenged the Board’s assertion that its long-term strategy for improved financial condition would be the best way to unlock shareholder value, highlighting the dramatic decline in stock price since August 2014. The Reporting Person believes that the Issuer’s stockholders will only be able to realize the value of their equity holdings through a sale of the Issuer. The Reporting Person stated in the Response Letter that although his previous offer of $12.50 per share represented a significant premium to the current and expected future price of the Issuer’s Common Stock, he would be willing to discuss a possible increase in the original offer with the Independent Directors’ commitment to engage in good faith negotiations, together with favorable results of additional due diligence investigation. The Reporting Person’s offer to discuss an acquisition at a higher price will remain open until January 14, 2015. If the Reporting Person does not receive a positive response from the Independent Directors by January 14, 2015, the Reporting Person will move forward with other alternative avenues to increasing the Issuer’s stock price, including seeking representation on the Board. The foregoing is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Response Letter, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.3 and incorporated by reference herein.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

Item 6 is hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

The information set forth in Item 4 is incorporated by reference into this Item 6. Except as described herein, the Reporting Person does not have any contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) with respect to any securities of the Issuer.

Item 7. Material to be Filed as Exhibits

Item 7 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:
